

Darlington Night Time Economy

This questionnaire is for disabled people and their families and/or support workers to complete.

Darlington Borough Council is asking for your help to make the town centre in the evenings (the night time economy) an even more attractive place to visit and to ensure we are meeting the needs of all residents and potential visitors. Telling us what you think and answering the questions below today will help us make decisions about the night time economy in the future.

There are other ways to let us know your views if you would prefer. You can answer the same questions...
